Do you know the traits of a good citizen? Circle the statements that best describe the virtue of citizenship. For the statements that do not describe citizenship, rewrite there so that they do in the space below. A good citizen is tolerant towards others who are different from them. A good citizen only cares about those closest to them. A good citizen keeps their space tidy, and thinks its a personal responsibility. A good citizen loves their country. A good citizen complains about things that are wrong in their area. A good citizen is friendly and compassionate to others.	NAME	DUE DATE virtue of citizenship. For the statements that do not describe citizenship, rewrite ther so that they do in the space below. A good citizen is tolerant towards others who are different from them. A good citizen only cares about those closest to them. A good citizen keeps their space tidy, and thinks its a personal responsibility. A good citizen loves their country. A good citizen complains about things that are wrong in their area.		Self -Assessment
A good citizen only cares about those closest to them. A good citizen keeps their space tidy, and thinks its a personal responsibility. A good citizen loves their country. A good citizen complains about things that are wrong in their area.	virtue of citizen	ship. For the statements that do not describe citizenship, rewrite then
A good citizen keeps their space tidy, and thinks its a personal responsibility. A good citizen loves their country. A good citizen complains about things that are wrong in their area.	A good citizen	is tolerant towards others who are different from them.
A good citizen loves their country. A good citizen complains about things that are wrong in their area.	A good citizen	only cares about those closest to them.
A good citizen complains about things that are wrong in their area.	A good citizen	keeps their space tidy, and thinks its a personal responsibility.
	A good citizen	loves their country.
A good citizen is friendly and compassionate to others.	A good citizen	complains about things that are wrong in their area.
	A good citizen	is friendly and compassionate to others.